

SENATE FAILS TO REACH VOTE ON RELIEF MEASURE

Senators Sherman and Cummins Attack Administration

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—(By The Associated Press.)—Passage tomorrow of the administration bill for food relief in Europe, was predicted tonight by leading advocates and opponents after another day of debate which proceeded with only a few members in their seats. Bi-partisan support of the bill was further indicated today. Speakers urging passage of the measure included Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, Democrat, chairman of the foreign relations committee and Senator Smoot of Utah and Kellogg of Minnesota, Republicans. Principal opponents in the day's debate were Senators Cummins of Iowa, and Sherman of Illinois, Republicans. Declaring that the proposed appropriation was not for charity, Senator Hitchcock urged the senate to aid President Wilson and his work at the peace conference by voting the fund. His rejection, he declared, would involve repudiation of America's representatives.

Hoover Upheld. Food Administrator Hoover, who has been severely attacked by opponents of the bill, was highly praised by Senator Hitchcock and also by Senator Smoot. The Nebraska senator said attacks on Mr. Hoover were stabs in the back and he joined Senator Smoot in commending the food administrator's work in fixing livestock and meat prices. Declaring both consumers and producers had been protected, Senator Cummins in opposing the bill declared that it commits the American government to a policy of internationalism and guardianship of European nations, while Senator Sherman asserted that part of the money would be used to feed Russian Bolsheviks.

Complete elimination of Germany as a military factor in the world was advocated by Senator Cummins, who argued that with Germany impotent to attack any national league of nations would be unnecessary. He said Germany should be denied an army or navy and be required to pay indemnities for the ruin wrought by her forces on land, on the sea and in the air. Senator Sherman declared the proposed resolution was not a relief fund, but a campaign bill, but he referred to President Wilson as a "knicker" in Europe fighting "Windmills."

Criticism Russian Policy. The Illinois senator said the agreement on a Russian policy reached at Paris proposed recognition of the Bolshevik government and in this connection he inveighed against Socialist propaganda which, he said, was being forwarded by professors in nearly every American college. Denouncing these professors as "firebrands of sedition," Senator Sherman said some men of their type were attached to the American peace mission.

Senator Cummins criticizing the bill asked Democratic leader Martin whether the appropriation was designed to make a market for packers' products. Senator Martin replied that the appropriation was designed primarily to alleviate starvation and suffering, "among our friends" in Europe, and that only incidentally would it make a market for some American products. The fund will be expended, Senator Martin said, by the inter-allied food council composed of "eight of the more distinguished men in the world."

Referring to price fixing the Iowa senator said that when the food administration fixed the price on hogs he had not doubted that the packers would be allowed to sell their products at a profit.

Remark that the measure was being opposed by some on the grounds that the president was an idealist, Senator Cummins said the chief executive's character was misunderstood.

Wilson a Great Statesman. "I think," he added, "he is the most practical statesman of this or any other age. He knows what he wants and how to get it."

The senator said the trouble was that the president was not always faced in the right direction.

"Let the successful nations of Europe undertake the guarantees necessary to hold these new nations in peace," he continued. "It will be an evil day when we forsake the infinite problems of the United States and devote ourselves to the problems of other countries."

Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania presented a telegram from C. H. Canby, who he said was a prominent Chicago grain broker, stating that it was rumored the food administration already had spent $20,000,000 of the appropriation proposed in the bill in anticipation of its passage and in violation of law.

Seeks Revision of Chino-Japanese Treaties of 1915

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—(By The Associated Press.)—Revision of Chino-Japanese treaties of 1915, signed after the presentation by Japan of her 21 demands, will be asked at the peace conference by the Chinese delegation according to an official statement issued here tonight by the Chinese agency.

"The Chinese people," said the statement, "assert that the Chino-Japanese treaties of 1915 are in principle as much a war settlement demanding revision by the peace conference as the treaties of Brest-Litovsk and of Bucharest."

"Like these latter settlements the Chino-Japanese treaties contain terms and conditions demanded by one of the belligerent powers in order—to quote the opening sentence of Japan's ultimatum (May 7, 1915)—to adjust matters to meet the new situation created by the war between Japan and Germany."

"The parallel between the two sets of war transactions runs in other directions. One more may be cited. Like the acts of Brest-Litovsk and of Bucharest the Chino-Japanese treaties impose on a state since associated with America and the allies against the central powers, exactions wholly inconsistent with the free and unfettered development of China as a modern independent nation."

"Further, besides striking at the root of the independence and territorial integrity of China as defined and affirmed in the great series of conventions between the great powers to Chino-Japanese treaties also violate the American doctrine of the open door in China. And it was for this and other reasons that the American government followed the conclusion of the treaties with a formal protest, notifying Japan that the United States would not be bound by the provisions of the same."

Commenting on the declaration of Japan's attitude toward China made by Viscount Uchida, the Japanese minister for foreign affairs in his address to parliament last Tuesday, the statement said that whether Viscount Uchida was speaking with "a Wilsonian accent" would be tested by the Japanese attitude toward the demand of China at the peace conference.

COMMENT ON ACTION TAKEN TOWARD RUSSIA

LONDON, Jan. 23.—(British Wireless Service.)—There is no reason to suppose "that this wise and high minded offer will be rejected by the Russian government," says the Daily News in commenting on the action of the supreme inter-allied war council in asking representatives of all Russian governments to meet delegates of the allied and associated powers in Princess Isolda for discussion of the Russian situation. "It affords them all a chance to escape from a future fall of menace," the paper adds. "It relieves them from threats of foreign interference which would have fostered class antagonisms and accentuated the material miseries that have so long tormented the helpless Russian people. But it is not only Russia that President Wilson has probably saved by this resolution. It is the hope of the league of nations."

The Manchester Guardian says that the decision of the conference displays an admirable spirit of compromise among the powers themselves.

The Westminster Gazette says: "If Russia declines the friendly hand that is now held out there are other resources open to civilization nor none of them hold the title of the promise of the experiment that is now made."

ILLINOIS DAIRYMEN ELECT OFFICERS

(By The Associated Press) BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Jan. 23.—Officers for the coming year were elected here this afternoon by the Illinois State Dairy Men's association at their convention. The election resulted as follows: J. P. Mason, Elgin, president; Andrew Tenbrock, McLean, vice-president; H. P. Irish of Farine, H. J. Credit of Freeport; George Fox of Sycamore, E. M. Clark of Champaign and L. E. Flanagan of Elmhurst, directors.

AWARDED DAMAGES.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 23.—Miss Effie Grace Smith was awarded a verdict for $7,500 damages by a jury here today in a breach of promise suit brought against William C. ("Bill") Schuster, for years a dominant factor in politics and the owner of several Peoria vice resorts. The jury was out three hours.

Sensational evidence was produced at the trial disclosing Schuster's connection with various vice resorts here. Attorneys for Schuster tonight said an appeal would be taken.

SWIFT IS AGAINST U. S. CONTROL OF PACKING INDUSTRY

Praises Work of Food Administration Before Committee

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Louis F. Swift, president of Swift & Co., told the house interstate commerce committee today that the food administration in stabilizing the livestock market had accomplished "wonderful things both for the producer and the consumer," and that its control was needed now as much as ever.

"This is a critical time and everybody is loaded up with meat," said Mr. Swift. "We haven't had many shipments. The only possible way to have made shipments abroad as we did was thru food administration control."

The witness declared that a decline of one cent a pound in the pork market would mean a loss of $2,500,000 to his firm on the great amount of meat it had prepared for the world market. He expressed a belief that with government control continued prices would be high for some months but then probably would decline.

The bill before the committee to license packing plants and permit the government to take over adjuncts such as stock yards, market newspapers and refrigerator cars was opposed by Mr. Swift and other reasons that the American government followed the conclusion of the treaties with a formal protest, notifying Japan that the United States would not be bound by the provisions of the same."

Refrigerator Cars. Mr. Swift suggested that instead of taking refrigerator cars away from the big firms the government or railroads should buy five thousand cars and let the small packers use them. He said refrigerator cars were a losing investment to his firm, which maintained them only to assure efficient service. The same suggestion was made regarding branch houses. Charges of collusion by the federal trade commission were denied by Mr. Swift. Mr. Swift said there were 25,000 stockholders in Swift & Co., and that his family did not own or control the stock. The witness said his salary was $50,000 a year and that his four brothers, all practical meat packers, draw from $25,000 to $35,000 each.

Keen competition between the five big packers was declared to exist and Mr. Swift said this apparently was a good time for new firms to enter the business. He said he never before knew of so many new plans under construction and told the committee that the Unheuser-Busch Brewing interests of St. Louis were starting a new packing company. The only other witness of the day was Levy Mayer, counsel for Armour & Co., who told the committee why he thought the pending bill unconstitutional. Mr. Mayer's testimony developed an attack on the federal trade commission's method of investigating the packing industry. He said none of the packing firms were asked to present testimony or question witnesses.

RAILROAD EMPLOYEES SEEK WAGE INCREASE

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Request for wage increases from four groups of railroad employees are under investigation by the board of wage and working conditions of the railroad administration and decisions will be announced in the near future. This announcement was made today by the board in a statement incorporated in the annual report of Director General McAdoo.

Wages and working conditions of the following classes of employees were announced as the subject of inquiry: "Engineers, firemen, conductors, and trainmen in road and yard service. Employees engaged on sleeping, dining and business cars; employees in the police department and employees of the American Railway Express."

CLAIMS DENIED.

Washington, Jan. 23.—Claims aggregating $2,600,000 against the government for railroads by shippers of Spokane, Wash., and vicinity, were denied today by the inter-state Commerce Commission. The suits were filed after the commission sometime ago decided that the general system of trans-continental rates had discriminated against Spokane and other inter-mountain points.

DISCUSSES TRADE COMMISSIONS' REPORT

Denver, Jan. 23.—William P. Colver, chairman of the federal trade commission, discussing the commission's report on the packing industry before the convention of the American national live stock association today declared that the report of the commission devote themselves to criticism of the commission itself but do not deal the facts contained in the report.

German National Assembly Will Convene Feb. 6

BERLIN, Wednesday, Jan. 23.—(By The A. P.)—The German national assembly which will convene at Weimar February 6th is expected to be in session about two months. The first business before the assembly will be the selection of a provisional government, because the present government considers its existence at an end with the convening of a constituent assembly.

The assembly will then take up the adoption of a constitution. The present government as such will not present any proposal and the draft drawn up by the ministry of the interior will be submitted merely as a preliminary suggestion to form the basis of discussion.

The obligatory task of the constituent assembly will be finished with the adoption of a constitution but it has the right to make of itself a constituted instead of a constituting body and this probably will be done.

In that case the assembly will be obliged to regulate tax and financial questions by legislation. The peace question probably will not be considered as it is not expected that the Germans will be admitted to the peace conference before the adjournment of the assembly. The matter of lodging the 3,000 persons who are expected to attend the convention is a serious one because Weimar is a small city with limited accommodations. The municipal authorities are considering the question of billeting the delegates and journalists with private families if necessary, and in adjacent cities. Telegraph, telephone and postal communications will be enlarged and train service also will be increased. Work in this direction already is under way. The constituent assemblies of the various Germans probably will not convene until the national assembly has completed its work.

ALL PLANS LAID FOR COLLECTING TAXES

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Secretary Glass said today that the treasury had made all plans for collecting taxes on the understanding that the revenue bill would be enacted by February 1, but that reports had come to him that it might be much longer before it was completed.

"The delay is making a most serious situation for the treasury and a feeling of exasperation among business men," the secretary said. "We cannot administer the law so well when it is so late in being completed and there is apparent a great deal of irritation on the part of interests which do not know how much to set aside for taxes."

Mr. Glass said the treasury would proceed with administration of the law without awaiting the signature of the president when it finally is disposed of by congress. The date of the next liberty loan planned for April would not be affected by the delay in completion of the revenue measure he declared.

The citation of Lieut. Quentin Roosevelt reads: "An excellent pilot and scout, possessing the highest qualities of courage and devotion to duty. Urges Turning Back National Guard Equipment

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Brig. Gen. John W. Heavey, acting chief of the militia bureau recommended to the house military affairs committee today that a rider be included in the army appropriation bill authorizing the secretary of war to turn over to the national guard from the surplus supplies of the regular army equipment valued at $135,000,000.

General Heavey said the general staff was in favor of transferring the supplies but was without authority. He explained that if this equipment were turned over the cost would be reduced to $55,000,000.

General Heavey urged that the national guard be maintained in the same form as it was before the United States entered the war and that the increases in its strength authorized by the act of June 3, 1916, be carried out.

"The value to the country during the war of the National guardsmen cannot be over estimated," he said. "At the time men were needed most the national guard provided a force of 367,000 men and 12,123 officers. They have did magnificent work comparing most favorably with the forces of any other nation. The efficiency of the officers was proved by the fact that of the three number only 352 were discharged for inefficiency."

"The militia bureau strong advocates universal military training, but believes it should be carried out in connection with the national guard."

The act of June 3, 1916, provided for sixteen divisions of a total strength of 400,864 men, General Heavey said, but because of the war the terms of the act were not carried out.

Serious Strikes Threatened All Over England

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Jan. 23.—Serious strikes and threats of more serious ones in England over disputes which ordinarily would be considered unimportant have led some students of British labor conditions to the belief that the demands are made not in an effort to better labor conditions but in an attempt to revolutionize the whole question of labor employment. Today 117,600 Yorkshire coal miners quit work because their employers declined to allow twenty minutes "dead time" for meals for surface workers, but the coal controller conceded the demands and the miners will resume work tomorrow.

The employers wanted the men to eat in relays and thus keep the machinery going. Stoppage of work in the great shipbuilding industry on the Clyde is threatened over a meal hour dispute. Under the only fifty-four hour week the men went to work with empty stomachs. They worked two hours and then had an hour for breakfast. Under the new forty-seven hour plan which has been agreed to, no time is allowed for breakfast and work is to start at 7 o'clock. The discontent is said to be caused by the women who do not like to arise in time to prepare an early breakfast.

In the shipbuilding union is an active minority which demands a thirty hour week.

The Daily Mail which is usually well informed in labor questions says: "These extremists are a small minority but are exceedingly active. They are in revolt, not only against capitalism, but also against the union leaders."

100,000 WOUNDED STILL IN FRANCE

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Wounded American soldiers remaining in hospitals overseas number approximately 104,000. Colonel W. H. Smith, of the surgeon general's office today told the senate committee conducting an inquiry of hospital facilities and construction. Many of these wounded, he said will not be brought home until they recover.

In the hospitals in this country, Colonel Smith said there are now 4,500 vacant beds which can be placed in use as additional wounded and sick are returned.

Brigadier General Marshall, chief of the construction division of the quartermaster's corps testifying in relation to the rejection of the plan to build a $3,250,000 military hospital at Chicago, said the project was disapproved by Assistant Secretary of War Crowell over the recommendation of the medical authorities.

GIRL HIT BY PASSENGER

Bloomington, Ill., Jan. 23.—Martha Wright, a girl who ran away from the institution for feeble minded children at Lincoln, last night, was struck by a Chicago and Alton passenger train in the yards at Normal this morning. One leg was cut off and her back was broken. It is feared she will not recover.

EFFORTS TO CALM RUSSIA ARE STILL IN THE BALANCE

Officials Differ On Steps Taken By Supreme Council

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Jan. 23.—(By The Associated Press.)—Whether the effort of the great powers to tranquilize Russia was to succeed or fail was still in the balance tonight. No reply had come from the Bolsheviks and as the wireless message embodying the proposal of the associated powers was not sent until two o'clock this morning some days may intervene before anything definite is known.

In the meantime, prominent anti-Bolshevik leaders in Paris are not clear on their course, and the first reports that they were favorable to the plan have been followed by a statement by such leaders as Sergius Sazonoff that they would not sit at the table with assassins.

The semi-official Temps also asserts that the supreme council's proposal "permits traitors who withdrew Russia from the war and turned the entire German strength against France to be received on the same footing as the faithful."

Only Open Course.

The American and British delegates feel however, that the proposal was the only open course.

Information reaching the allies indicates that the Bolsheviks have a powerful army in which discipline is being enforced. In view of this information one of the premiers pointed out today that the Bolsheviks could only be combated by a large number of allied troops, which would have to be on the spot immediately whereas none of the governments could ask people already wearied by war to undertake another large military expedition. The council of the great powers today definitely set forth four main subjects to be presented to the full conference on Saturday: First, international labor legislation; second, responsibility and punishment for the war; third, indemnities; fourth, internationalization of ports, waterways and railways.

These subjects are not to be discussed in detail but will be immediately referred to committees for study and report. The American members of these committees were selected at an extended conference between President Wilson and the American delegates this afternoon. The American plans on the first topic are already well advanced. While there is no definite information on the second point relative to responsibility and punishment for the war the sentiment in American quarter inclines to a negative attitude with some suggestions that those responsible who have fled from Germany should be returned for Germany to deal with.

Third subject, indemnities will not be presented in the conference with the amounts claimed by each government, but a committee will be charged with the task of assembling these amounts and also of determining the probable maximum the enemy powers are able to pass.

Important Meeting Today. The meeting tomorrow will have added importance in bringing council with President Wilson, the premiers and foreign ministers, reinforced by Marshal Foch, Field Marshal Haig, General Pershing and General Diaz and the full membership of the war council of Versailles.

The subject for consideration is not Russia or Poland, as was supposed, but the status of the present military occupation of Germany which the council desires information from the leaders. In some allied quarters it had been suggested that the American strength in the occupied regions should be relatively larger than that of the other forces, as the European allies have gone thru longer service. This view is not longer service. This view is not longer service. This view is not longer service.

BEHIND IN SOLDIERS' PAY

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—In response to numerous inquiries received by the Red Cross and the bureau of war risk insurance relatives to allotment checks for relatives of soldiers, sailors and marines for November and December, the Red Cross today sent the following telegram to all division directors:

"Secretary of the Treasury announces all war risk checks for November and December will be out by January 31. Hence desirable to withhold inquiries as to these checks until Feb. 1.

Officials believe that most of the inquiries received about allotments for the two months will be answered by the receipt of the checks by January 31.

CONSENTS TO MARRIAGE.

London, Jan. 23.—Via Mont-real—King George has consented to the renunciation by Princess Patricia of Connaught by Princess Patricia of Connaught and her style of address as Royal Highness of her marriage next month to Commander Lord Alexander Ramsay, brother of the Earl of Dalhousie. The princess after her marriage will be known as Lady Patricia Ramsay.

Baker Favors Parading of All Returning Men

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—Secretary Baker reiterated today his desire that wherever possible either the full strength or substantial portions of returning combat divisions parade in large cities in the section from which they came. New York is making great preparations for reception and parade of the 27th division.

"For instance," said the secretary, "the Black Hawk" (68th) division comes largely from Chicago. I am hoping to be able to work out a plan by which a substantial part of that division can parade in Chicago. This division will go to Camp Grant which is a considerable distance from Chicago, and the train arrangements for getting the whole division to Chicago will be very complicated and perhaps impossible.

"One plan is to have the troops sent thru the city first, allowed to detrain, parade and then entrain again for the camp, thus breaking the railroad journey."

Mr. Baker expressed a strong wish that the forty-second (Rainbow) division now with the American army on the Rhine, parade in Washington as representative of the entire country and the whole fighting army.

Mr. Baker announced that men of the 27th who have already returned, even those who have been mustered out would be given an opportunity to march with their comrades in New York. The sick and wounded will be carried in ambulances or other motor transport.

Another suggestion that Secretary Baker is considering has to do with the German guns and other fighting gear captured in battle by the 27th. He may ask General Pershing to arrange for the shipment of these trophies with the division so that they may be displayed by the troops when the march of triumph thru the streets of New York takes place.

BILL HOHENZOLLERN EXPERT WOOD SAWER

A MERONGEN, Wednesday, Jan. 23.—(By The Associated Press.)—Sawing wood continues to be the chief occupation of the former German emperor, who spends several hours each morning and afternoon within the castle grounds working hard while several men-servants respectfully hand him logs and then pile the short sticks in heaps for use later in the furnaces of the castle.

The shortage of coal in Holland compels the burning of wood plentiful supplies of which are obtainable from the surrounding estate. William Hohenzollern works so well that he is able to furnish the entire consumption of the castle fires. There are various reports in circulation concerning the alleged intention of the former German emperor to return to Potsdam. These are based on her expressed desire to end her days at Potsdam which she regards as her home. The former empress it is said, has no intention of leaving her husband in Holland. Communication between the former empress and her children and grandchildren is fairly frequent by letter and telegram, but no suggestion has arisen to her joining them in Germany.

For several weeks nothing has been heard from the crown prince who remains virtually alone in his home on the island of Wierangen.

Several more members of the former emperor's suite are about to leave for Germany where, as state servants, they must place themselves at the disposal of the government or forfeit their right to pensions. ## LESSER INTEREST

IN STRIKES NOW
A strike is in progress in one of the big ship yards on the western coast. The workmen want $1 an hour, with just about that sum for helpers. The people regret to see industrial trouble but they are not nearly so vitally interested in ship yard strikes as was the case before the war came to an end. It is a mooted question as to just what influence or aid won the war but certainly America's vigorous shipbuilding program has much to do with the result.

WHERE IS THE MONEY GOING?

Opposition seems to increase in the senate to the president's $100,000,000 appropriation bill for relief work overseas. As the Globe-Democrat puts it, Senator Penrose and Senator Sherman are wanting to know into whose stocking all the foodstuffs will go if the U. S. plays Santa Claus in any such large way as the bill suggests.

SOLDIER CANDIDATES

Political conditions are all astray in Chicago in the mayoralty campaign. Mayor Thompson is again a candidate. Chief Justice Harry Olson has a very strong support and Alderman Merriam is another very strong candidate not unknown to the public. The effort of friends of Col. J. G. Clinlin, with the 130th infantry overseas, to have him a candidate has failed. Col. Clinlin has wisely sent the information that his duties with Illinois troops will certainly prevent his entering the contest. Friends of the colonel evidently had in mind not only that he would make a good official if elected, but also the fact that his overseas service would be a vast campaign asset. In the coming elections, at least in the near future, soldier candidates will fare well at the hands of the voters.

IN THE HANDS OF THE PEOPLE.

It seems now to be a generally acknowledged fact that if Colonel Theodore Roosevelt had lived he would have accepted the Republican nomination for the presidency, had it been tendered. The vast influence the colonel exerted, the strength of his following, taken together with the changing political conditions, make it quite safe to say that he would probably have been the party nominee. Colonel Roosevelt is credited with having said to a friend "I don't want to be nominated unless there is a demand and a practically unanimous call from the party." One thing is generally conceded, and that is that 1920 will be a Republican year.

MORE TROUBLES.

To add to all the packers' troubles, two farmers have begun suit against Armour & Co. for $10,000. The defendants are charged with selling infected virus and serum, which when used as cholera preventative, caused the death of the swine. Generally speaking, a packer is the best friend that the farmer has who fears disease among his hogs. If the farmer ships as soon as there is any sign of disease the animals are pretty certain to pass U. S. inspection and the grower will be saved from any serious loss.

GEN. WOOD STILL HAS SOUND ADVICE.

General Leonard Wood's spirit has not been crushed by the fact that he was relegated to a western camp instead of being sent to the overseas service he so greatly desired. The general, long before the war an advocate of military training, is consistently urging its benefits now. He said recently that the plan of industrial training along with military training now being tried out at Camp Funston, purposes "to keep the smallest number of men in uniform, as a standing army, but to have the largest number thoroughly trained to be ready when the country calls." That is a plan which should certainly have almost unanimous support, for Gen. Wood has well said that the prediction that there "would be no wars" is as old as time, but war is like pestilence in that it comes unawares. Gen. Wood had another significant statement on this same subject. "You cannot massage away by fine rhetoric the passions of nations whose methods and morals are entirely different from our own."

MR. CLARK'S STATESMANSHIP.

Speaker Champ Clark exhibited more of his fine spirit of statesmanship when he said recently, in protesting against having American troops in Russia: "If the Russians and French want the wire torn down, let them do it themselves. After we licked the Germans for them they surely can police Europe themselves." That boastful spirit is unworthy of an American in the position of Speaker Clark. He would take all the credit for winning the war, without consideration for the years of sacrifice made by Belgium, France, England and the other allies. And the speaker should remember, too, that if he had had his own way there would have been no selective service act and the fighting would have still been in progress, or else Germany would have been the victor.

STABILIZED LIVESTOCK PRICES.

With differing views on many points about the exact relationship of the packers to the public, newspapers generally agree on one point, that it is unfortunate the farmer or stockman must take all the risk. There certainly is too much fluctuation of livestock values and that is the annoying feature of the business. The farmer today can plan his livestock operations for the next six months or year with no certainty as to prices. In fact, he has no idea what the market condition will be next month or three months hence to say nothing of the longer period. If, as Mr. Armour has suggested, there could be some central agency for stabilizing prices, it would do much to end the controversies over the power that the packers wield.

HOME SERVICE AND THE RED CROSS

The Home Service of the Red Cross comes, perhaps, in closer contact with the personal interests of the soldier than any other organization. Its great service is looking after the "folks back home" seeing that each soldier's family prospers. Because of this the American soldier has fought with a stouter heart; he did not have to worry about the welfare of his dear ones back home. In our own Chapter here in Jacksonville, although we have not a large section we have been able to give service in nearly a thousand cases. Sometimes the service was small, only a little information, but it led to a personal acquaintance with the family and they learned the many ways it is possible for us to help them. We have relieved distress and anxiety in many cases of delayed allotments. One woman said: "It isn't the loss that I appreciate so much, although I don't know what I should have done without it, but the knowledge that the Red Cross is my friend and is interested in my problems, that I can turn to it in my anxiety."

Our Bureau of Communication has done much to relieve the mental suffering of soldier's relatives. Through this we are able to locate the man and get word as to his condition. We are able to send him assurance that his family is well and wants for nothing, or for some reason he has not heard from them. When the man is a prisoner his family often have no idea how to communicate with him. With the information we have we are able to help them.

Often when the soldier himself is on leave some member of his family is ill and through our department they are able to obtain an extension on his leave. There are almost countless ways in which we can assist and whatever we are able to do we do gladly and to the best of our ability. We hope to continue to serve until the soldier and his family are settled once more in civil life with the same spirit in which they were ready to serve us while under arms.

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason

The Wrong Tool.
Since first the Kaiser donned his crown his talk had been of swords; he gloried in his war lord frown, and dreamed of marching hordes. A sword is but a useless tool, used in no honest trade, and no one but a knave or fool prefers it to a spade. There is no sane, uplifting job in which a sword's required, and any flier sword-truck war is sure to make me tired. Had Wilhelm clamored for a hoe, when he secured his throne, he might not now be clothed in war's outcast skin. Instead of sending submarines to show new curves in crime, he might have hoed his stringless beans, admired in every clime. Behind his Postdam linden trees he might have had a patch of stringless beans or early peas that would be hard to match. By toiling for an hour or two, each morning, briskly there, he might have won the ribbon blue at state or county fair. Had he insisted on a saw as emblem of his power? But no, he must have sword to draw and flourish by the hour. He did not wish to tow the elm in useful two foot length; the sword must advertise his realm, its majesty and strength. And now he has no realm to boast, he cannot use his sword; he perched up on his lonely roost, dishonored, weary holed.

BEGINNING TO TALK ABOUT CANDIDATES

Names are heard in connection with Office of Mayor and Board of Aldermen.

BANKERS PLAN FOR GROUP MEETING

A meeting of the executive committee of Group 8, Illinois Bankers' association, was held in Jacksonville Thursday. There are ten counties in this group and as Jacksonville is a central point, all the banks will probably be represented.

WAYMAN COMING TO AID RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

CANADIAN SOLDIER WILL REACH CITY SATURDAY

One Hundred Per Cent Membership Plan Meets Hearty Support—Committee Impresses Advertising Value of City Team Organization. Announced Work in County Moves Smoothly.

New interest was given to the Red Cross campaign last night when Dr. G. H. Kopperl, chairman, announced that the committee had been able to secure the coming of Sergeant Matthew Wayman to assist in the work. Sergeant Wayman is expected Saturday morning and will remain for a number of days. He will make the principal address at the meeting Monday and no doubt will speak at a number of precinct gatherings. The part that Sergeant Wayman has had in war time campaigns here in the past is a matter of pleasant memory. His popularity as a speaker was unequalled and at each recurring appearance he had something new and interesting to say. The result was that there was a great aid in the war work and has hundreds of friends and admirers scattered all over Morgan county. The committee feels especially fortunate in securing his services again in the present need.

The Hundred Per Cent Plan
The organization work for the campaign is in a most satisfactory condition. One hundred per cent membership reports are still coming in to headquarters in the Knollenberg building and there are unmistakable signs everywhere of the general interest of the public. Special stress is now being laid upon the 100 per cent membership plan in order to make the work of solicitation easier and to enable the campaign management to finish up its work within a few days' time.

To that end the proprietors of all business houses are asked to immediately canvass their employees for memberships so that all these establishments may have the 100 per cent posters in their windows. As soon as this work is done the store proprietors are asked to furnish the names and addresses of these members to the Red Cross headquarters. This will mean that the workers will be saved the trouble of calling on the persons so listed and the time of the members will also be saved.

An Advertising Help

There is another feature of this 100 per cent program and that is the value of advertising which comes from the posters it conspicuously displayed in all the store windows. It is a plan to urge co-operation in such a way that the 100 per cent signs may be seen view Saturday and thus a large amount of publicity work accomplished, impressing Saturday visitors with the progress of the campaign.

Solicitors are to call this afternoon at business houses where the 100 per cent posters are not shown. This will be done not only to urge business men and their employees to join, but simply to call attention to the plan in a personal way. Jacksonville has a reputation to sustain in this 100 per cent program and business men and their assistant workers can help out in a very certain way.

As already mentioned, Dr. Kopperl secured the co-operation of Mrs. Keith Montgomery as the chairman for Jacksonville and Mrs. Montgomery yesterday announced the following general organization for both Jacksonville and South Jacksonville. In the fourth ward Mrs. T. H. Buckthorpe was to have been captain but on account of the illness of her son is compelled to give up the work.

In County Precincts. W. Barr Brown, who is the county chairman for the precincts outside of Jacksonville proper, has his organization practically completed. The various captains have been appointed but in only a very few instances have their lieutenants been named. The complete list, however, will soon be available as Mr. Brown is finding the county workers expected the campaign and have been mentally preparing for the work. Among the workers named are the following:

Alexander—F. J. Kaiser, captain.
Arcadia—W. J. Houston, captain.
Chapin—C. A. Allen, captain.

Jacksonville No. 1—P. D. Trotter, captain.
Jacksonville No. 6—Charles S. Black, captain, with the following lieutenants: John Hadden, James W. Martin, C. L. Reid, A. C. Reid, George Fredlander.

The Canvassers' Spirit
The men and women who are to engage in this Red Cross canvassing work are doing so at personal sacrifice of time, so persons whom they solicit for memberships should really feel that the canvassers are doing them a favor. As has been said so many times, the war is over but the Red Cross work will go on forever—at least, everybody hopes it will, and the way to show that the hope is sincere is by immediately taking out membership.

At Headquarters

Progress is made from day to day at the headquarters of the Red Cross. Charles H. Hall has been placed in charge of supplies. Several business establishments and other places announced the 100 per cent yesterday. They were: Strawn & Spink Insurance office, Tom Duffner Co. clothing store, R. T. Cassell auto establishment and cigar factory, W. N. Hairgrove attorney office.

The student body of Illinois college all went over the top yesterday. Only ten of the number were absent.

J. A. WEEKS SELLS FARM NEAR CONCORD

J. A. Weeks, well known real estate operator of Arenzville, has good reason to be satisfied with an advertisement recently inserted in the Journal, for it was thru this advertisement that he has just sold a farm of 100 acres, located three quarters of a mile east of Concord. Two weeks ago this farm was listed in the advertisement referred to and as a direct result the tract was sold to Samuel Ator, living east of Jacksonville, for $16,500. A little more than a year ago Mr. Weeks sold Mr. Ator a farm east of Jacksonville which the latter disposed of at a nice profit.

SPORTING NEWS

Indianapolis, Jan. 22.—Paul E. Barry, former pitcher for Notre Dame University, who passed up a three-year contract with the New York Giants, when he volunteered for army service in October, 1917, is recovering from a wound at Fort Benjamin Harrison, near here. Barry was wounded in the hip at Verdun, when an Austrian shell exploded near a group of eighteen men. Of the eighteen men, Barry alone escaped death. He has nearly recovered and hopes to be able to go south with the Giants next spring.

Barry entered service with Hank Gowdy of the Boston Braves. He and Gowdy, as the battery, won the baseball championship of the American Expeditionary Forces for the 23rd infantry.

At Notre Dame, Barry was a four-letter man, but baseball was his strong point. He was picked up by a scout for the Giants after an 18-inning contest with the University of Michigan. He was beaten in that game, 3 to 2, by George Sisler, who was signed by the St. Louis Americans.

Columbus, O., Jan. 22.—Harry Greb, Pittsburgh middleweight, and Soldier Bartfield, New York, will meet in a twelve-round contest here January 27. Bartfield, although lighter than Greb, fought the Pittsburgher before, and was credited with holding his own.

Iowa City, Iowa, Jan. 22.—Fred H. Lohman of Fort Madison, Ia., a junior in medicine, will lead the 1919 football eleven of the University of Iowa. He played half back on the 1918 team and was regarded as one of the greatest line plungers in the Western Conference. Besides Lohman, it now seems probable that Coach Jones will have Slater, Kelly, Belding, Parkins, Synhorst, Hiel, Mockmore, Buck, Sykes, Justin, Cumberland and Smith as veterans around whom the 1919 eleven will be constructed.

Minneapolis, Jan. 22.—Football prospects at the University of Minnesota for 1919 will be considered at the annual Gridiron feast to be held soon. The captain of the eleven may not be elected at the banquet as several stars who have one more year to play will not be able to attend. They are still in military service.

Coach Williams has received word from "Shorty" Long, quarterback, that he will return next fall. Long and Wyman are with the American army of occupation. No word, however, has been received from Wyman.

It is expected that Parker Anderson, halfback in 1916, and Theron Gerow, both back from France, will return to school. Frank Mayer all conference tackle will also attend the university but he has several irregularities in his conference record. "There is a chance that these will be cleared up," said Coach Williams.

St. Paul, Jan. 22.—The St. Paul Athletic Club may receive the exclusive privilege for conducting boxing bouts in this city. The suggestion that the club take over the privilege was made by Frank B. Thompson, chairman of the State Athletic Commission, who said individuals and private clubs that have staged the bouts did not conduct them satisfactorily. Local promoters have declared that it is impossible to successfully promote boxing bouts, because two-thirds of the enthusiasts insist upon passes.

SENATE COMMITTEE SLATE PREPARED
Springfield, Ill., Jan. 22.—A probable slate for the executive committee in the senate is understood to be prepared and practically ready for confirmation when the upper house meets again January 28th. This is one of the most important committees of the senate.

Senator Frederick B. Roos of Forest Park will head the committee again, and those who will serve with him are forecast to be Senators Barr, Bailey, Ettelson, Buck, Kessinger, Cliffe, Turnbaugh, Hull, Denver, Gorman and Hughes.

The Democrats on the committee are Senators Denver, Gorman and Hughes. Three new names appear. They are Senators Buck, Cliffe and Turnbaugh who occupy places of senators defeated at the last election.

To Automobile Owners

Do you want to learn something about your auto? Did you know that what is usually termed a "Gasoline Engine" is in reality a Hydro-Carbon Motor, and does not run on gasoline? Did you know that gasoline is not an explosive? That there are thousands of perfectly good spark plugs thrown away every day? Do you want to know how to tell which cylinder is missing on your machine, and what is the cause? If you do, watch this space Sundays and Wednesdays, and when you need accessories or supplies for your car, remember Skinner's Accessory and Supply Store, 211 South Sandy St. (one door north of our former location). We do not run a garage or repair shop at this location. It is a selling proposition only, to furnish you what you want for your car, at the lowest possible price, and to assist you in keeping down the running expense of your machine. If there is anything you want to know about your car, if you will write us, stating as clearly as possible what you want to know, sending self-addressed, stamped envelope, we will answer your questions to the best of our ability, free of charge.

Senator Smoot of Utah, Republican, indicated he was inclined to support the measure and said food administration control of sugar prices was the best thing ever done for the American people.

Hoover Replies to Criticisms.
Paris, Jan. 23.—Herbert C. Hoover, the food administrator, made a statement today in reply to criticisms of him in the United States senate during a recent debate.

"I apparently emerge in a new light as the friend of the Chicago packers," said Mr. Hoover. "At the same time the mail brings a report from Swift & Co., blaming the food administration for reducing their profits by $10,000,000 during the last year. I do not imagine that the packers would appreciate a wide circle of such friends."

"I notice also that I committed a crime by holding the October joint conference of farmers and representatives of 40 small packers, as well as the big packers, together with representatives of allied governments for the purpose of settling on a price for exports of pork that would give the American farmer a square deal and a distribution of orders that would protect the small packers."

"We have even tried to secure the continuance of these war arrangements through armistice period and the opening of other markets, because the American farmer did his duty and produced goods."

"If the American farmer and the small packer now feel that these arrangements are wrong it would be the greatest burden of our shoulders if we could know it quickly. The British government is particularly anxious to be relieved from these arrangements."

HAD THRILLING WAR EXPERIENCES

G. K. Taylor of Quincy Visiting Here Recently Released from Navy Service—Served on U. S. Destroyer.

G. K. Taylor is making a brief visit with his sister, Mrs. Homer Rowland, and his brother, Frank Taylor. He has been in the navy service during the war and was recently released, altho he is still subject to call.

Prior to the opening of the war, Mr. Taylor was a telegrapher in Quincy, and in June, 1917, enlisted in the navy service. After training in the radio school at Harvard university he was assigned to the U. S. destroyer Walke. As he was wireless operator on the destroyer and for many months in both patrol and convoy duty he had many experiences which he will remember for the rest of his life.

To friends yesterday Mr. Taylor related witnessing the sinking of the Standard Oil Tanker "Herbert L. Pratt" by a German submarine and the torpedoing of the "Frederick R. Kellogg." At one time the Walke picked up two survivors from the Norwegian ship Vilyand which was sunk by a German submarine. At various times during this set of experiences the Walke was fired upon but fortunately always escaped. Mr. Taylor is soon to resume his work as a telegrapher in Quincy.

Favorite Lodge No. 376, Knights of Pythias, held its tenth annual roll call in Castle Hall Thursday evening. Despite unfavorable health conditions over 100 members were present and an interesting program was carried out.

The lodge first held a brief business session. After the closing ceremony of the lodge, L. B. Turner acted as chairman of the evening, and Jewell E. Scott called the roll.

All responded by answering to their name and the following made brief talks: Messrs. Claus, Cocking, Chipchase, Carter, Craig, Cowdin, Pangust, Gerlach, H. H. Hall, Myrick, Pierson, Rohman, Swaby, Turner, Yeck, Robinson.

Mr. Robinson delivered the main address of the evening, dwelling upon the world war and the reconstruction period. He dwelt especially upon the part the order of Knights of Pythias will have in the work. His address was a most able one and was heard with close interest.

During the evening the orchestra composed of C. Carl Yeck, Earl White, Earl Richardson, Harold Johnson, John Kearns and M. E. Gilbert gave a number of selections and George Gerlach favored the members with piano numbers.

A number of letters were read from members who are in other cities and in other countries. Several members from Jacksonville, Lodge No. 152 were guests. The program closed with all uniting in singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

The lodge has lost two members by death the past year, W. E. Knollenberg, January 23, 1918, and Earl E. Smith, October 7, 1918, who was on the Westgate when it was sunk.

An oyster supper was served at the close of the evening's entertainment.

KINDERGARTEN BENEFIT.

Academy hall was filled to capacity last evening on the occasion of the kindergarten benefit and those attending were well repaid for going. Dr. H. C. Woltman presided and introduced Misses Virginia Bullard and Ellen McCurley who played with great skill and ability a rondo for two pianos by Chopin.

Mrs. William Barr Brown, ever popular sang a number in her usual finished manner and was rewarded with a vociferous encore.

Dr. Woltman spoke earnestly on the subject of conservation which is of necessity so prominently before the people. Children are the nation's greatest asset and should have the greatest care. He told how each soldier in the army was scrutinized; deeded but if unfit; how camp kitchens, mess rooms, storage houses, clothing and all were watched, everything saved and men grandly developed and kept morally clean.

Dr. Josephine Milligan was greeted with a fine ovation as she appeared. She told graphically of the voyage across on the little overladen French boat; of the landing at Bordeaux; the sojourn to the next field of labor. She vividly described a visit to Paris, dark and gloomy in war time and so different after the armistice, the devastated regions and told how forests were shattered by artillery; how towns were demolished; how so many mutilated soldiers were seen and the cordiality shown Americans.

The whole program was very interesting.

PLANNING FOR BETTER DAIRY COWS

Movement is Fostered by Department of Agriculture Given Impetus at Bloomington Meeting.

Bloomington, Jan. 23.—The campaign for more and better dairy cows in Illinois launched under the direction of the Division of Dairy Extension, Department of Agriculture, State of Illinois, was given a big impetus at the convention of Illinois dairymen by T. A. Borman of Chicago who is a recognized authority on dairy matters.

"It seems," said Mr. Borman, "that this is the hey-day of dairy extension. We should all place our every energy and service behind this campaign and make it a howling, gigantic success. The entire state should be awakened to the fullest appreciation of the dairy cow and of her products as the best possible food for young and old alike."

W. D. Munn, president of the National Dairy Council and of the Jersey Cattle club of America, was the principal speaker at the convention today. Mr. Munn gave great an address which was of great interest to the members of the convention.

"The usefulness of milk and dairy products as food has been known since the dawn of civilization," said Mr. Munn, "although little thought has been given to their importance. Those engaged in the dairy industry have been ignorant of its vital relationship to human welfare and almost unmindful of its necessity to national development."

"I want to say to you men of Illinois," Mr. Munn added, "that I live in Minnesota and I know the farming community of Minnesota pretty well. We admire beyond the power I have to express the interest which your government has taken in agriculture and in the dairy industry."

Howard C. Barker, a dairyman on an extensive scale from the northern part of the state, gave a practical talk on "Feeding the Dairy Cow for Better Production." Mr. Barker advocated the selection of pure bred bulls for profitable dairying and urged the formation of cow testing and bull associations.

The Illinois dairy association, breeders of dairy cattle and manufacturers of dairy supplies, all pledged their entire support to the campaign.

JUDGE PURDY UNABLE TO VISIT WHITE HALL

Former Resident Invited to Make Address at Roosevelt Memorial Unable to Accept Invitation—Has Been Ill of Influenza—Henry Ballard Dead.

White Hall, Jan. 23.—Plans for the Roosevelt Memorial Service at White Hall have simmered down to Cornelius J. Doyle, of Springfield, as the leading speaker. Mr. Doyle has always regarded White as the source of his political career, and an invitation extended to him by Attorney W. L. Winn, it is confidently believed will meet with an acceptance. Plans for a visit by Judge M. D. Purdy of Minneapolis, official "trust buster" under the Roosevelt administration and a White Hall boy, have met with the response that owing to being a victim of influenza, he will be unable to be present. His letter follows:

Minneapolis, Minn., January 20, 1919.

Mr. Dear Henry:
I have just received your letter of the 17th, instant, inviting me to deliver an address at the Roosevelt memorial services to be held at White Hall on the 9th day of February, and I cannot tell you how much I appreciate such an invitation, coming from my old friends and associates in Greene county.

I have been sick for the past three weeks with influenza, and it has left me in a very depressed and weakened condition. It was only last Saturday that my physician advised me to go to Florida or California for a couple of months and I am seriously considering whether I ought not follow his advice. The only thing which is keeping me here is the trial of a case set for the 28th of

Under the circumstances I don't see how I can possibly accept your invitation, altho it is with great reluctance that I decline. Kindly convey to Mayor Boehm my appreciation and regrets. #### Influenza Claims Member of Old White Hall Family.

Henry Ballard, aged more than fifty years, died at Roodhouse Wednesday night, being a victim of influenza. He was a son of the late Jack Ballard of White Hall, and has been engaged in buying live stock at Roodhouse for a number of years. William Ballard, Mrs. John Goodwin and Mrs. J. H. Winters, all of White Hall, are brothers and sisters of the deceased.

The death of James Cobb at Jacksonville, also an old resident of White Hall, who recently moved to Jacksonville, is also reported as having occurred Wednesday night.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Julia Calhoun Brown, daughter of A. M. and Sarah Calhoun was born at Franklin, Ill., Nov. 20, 1877. She departed this life Jan. 19, 1919, aged 41 years, 1 month, 29 days.

She was united in marriage to A. F. Brown, Aug. 24, 1898 and was the mother of three children, Alberta, Julius and Gerald. Besides her husband and children, she leaves the aged parents, four sisters and five brothers and a large circle of distant relatives and friends.

She was converted in her girlhood under the preaching of Rev. J. J. Porter and united with the Baptist church at Franklin. Her membership was later transferred to the Baptist church of Palmyra, of which church she continued a member until her death.

She was a lady of culture and refinement, a self sacrificing and devoted wife and mother. Quiet and unassuming she was of a friendly disposition and bound friends to her with strong ties.

Her life was short in years but "We measure life by thoughts, not years, by heart throbs, not by hours measured on a dial. He lives the most who thinks most lives noblest, loves the best."

It is not necessary to enter into lengthened eulogies. It would be too late so far as the departed is concerned for her ears heard not our words. It is unnecessary so far as you are concerned, who loved her best. As the years pass, loved ones will shine with ever increasing brightness and it will seem to you her hand is beckoning you onward and upward. We stand with bowed heads, perhaps with questioning hearts, asking why one so useful should have been taken thus in the prime of life. Let us strive to believe it is the choice of infinite love.

Sometime when all life's lessons have been learned
And sun and stars forevermore have set.
The things which our weak judgment here has spurned
The things o'er which we grieved with lashes wet
Will flash upon us out of life's dark night
As stars shine most in deeper tints of blue
And we shall see how all God's plans are right
And how what seemed reproof was love most true.

The funeral was conducted at the residence of Abe Calhoun, father of the deceased and residing at Franklin, Rev. E. Combrink, Presbyterian minister of Alton, officiating. The bearers were: Warren Luttrell, Burley Wright, Gus Seymour, George Seymour, Frank Seymour and Leslie Clayton.

The flowers were cared for by Mrs. Burley Jones, Mrs. John Green, Mrs. B. F. Wright. Music was furnished by Mrs. Bert Scott and daughter, Elgin Ohlinger and Mrs. Martin Anderson, Miss May Boulware accompanying. Interment was in Franklin cemetery.

MOTHER! YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH, FROM CONSTIPATION

If Tongue is Coated, Breath Bad, Stomach Sour, Clean Liver and Bowels.

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs"; then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Adv.

HALF OF FRENCH ARMY LOST

1,500,000 killed in battle and an equal number seriously wounded is the enormous sacrifice of France in the world war. This constituted about half of the men she put into the field—a larger ration of her 36,000,000 population than any other nation gave. America owes France a large debt of gratitude for this heroic outpouring of her life's blood that liberty might live, and also to the peasants of France who discovered a perfect remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, which is reported to have relieved incalculable suffering, prevented many surgical operations and saved thousands of lives. Geo. H. Mayr, a leading Chicago chemist, imports the ingredients and sells this remedy in America under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by Coover & Shreve East Side Drug Co., and druggists everywhere.—Adv.

Tells Aged People How to Get More Strength.

Here is another link in the chain of evidence to prove that our famous cod liver and iron tonic creates strength for feeble old people.

Mr. Nelson H. Pease of the National Soldiers' Home, Tennessee, says: "I am 74 years of age and was in a weak, debilitated condition, poor appetite and did not sleep well. Vinol gave me a good appetite. I sleep well, and it has built me up so I feel stronger and better in every way. I strongly recommend Vinol for such conditions as I believe it prolongs life for old people." For sale by all druggists.

GOVERNOR FAVORS ALL-RIVER ROUTE

Work Begun on Measure to Emboldy Suggestions of Governor Relating to All-River Route Waterway Connecting Lakes With Gulf—Bonds Now Available.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 22.—Following the statement of Governor Lowden in his biennial message to the legislature that the favors the "all-river" route waterway connecting the great lakes with the gulf, work has begun on a measure to embody the suggestions of the governor as worked out with engineers and heads of the department of public works and buildings.

While the all-river route is looked upon as a little more expensive, it is believed by the administration to be worth the added expenditure in view of the magnitude of the undertaking and the fact that the construction will affect the entire nation. Under the plan as now contemplated, the waterway will follow the channel of the Sanitary District of Chicago south to Lockport, Ill., thence by way of the Desplaines river to the Illinois river, and via the latter stream, to the Mississippi river and the gulf.

The channel is to be at least eight feet deep thruout its entire length, 160 feet wide and will be provided with adequate locks of a design to be determined by engineers, according to William L. Sackett of Morris, superintendent of waterways.

All problems of engineering have not yet been met, Mr. Sackett stated. Most of them are disappearing rapidly, however, and it is hoped that the bill will be so drawn as to eliminate objections of federal engineers which prevented construction work under the provisions of the Dunne waterway bill, he said. If the war department approves the Lowden plan, action by congress probably will not be needed, it is said.

Conferences are in progress between the division of waterways of the department of public works and buildings and cities thru which the waterway is to pass with a view of clearing up questions of construction as they affect municipalities.

A change in the water level at Joliet, it is said, will make necessary certain alterations in city building plans. Waterway bonds in the sum of $20,000,000 authorized several years ago by vote of the people for the construction of the lakes-to-the-gulf project still are available, and it is not the intention of the administration at this session, it is stated, to ask further appropriations for the waterway.

COMMITTEE ON LAW REFORM TO MEET

State Bar Association Committee to Determine What Measures Association Will Foster at Present Legislative Session.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 22.—The committee on law reform of the Illinois State Bar Association will meet here on February 4 and determine definitely what measures the association will foster at the present legislative session.

Among subjects that will be up for discussion are:

Statutory revision. Uniform court practice. Unification of the courts. Prohibiting unlicensed persons practicing law.

Abolition of the grand jury. In Chicago last November the law reform committee held hearings on proposed legislative changes, and practically all these questions were discussed.

There is some difference of opinion on the advisability of attempting a revision of Illinois statutes because of the immanence of the constitutional convention and the likelihood that some statutes may be nullified by the convention. Agreement appears to exist, however, in the end for a revision of the statutes to eliminate what is said to be a condition of "overlapping and confusion." Some attorneys take the position that the new constitution will not necessarily involve great changes in the body of structure of the law or classification of the statutes.

The bar association is expected to favor some measure proposing uniformity of court practice, a favorite subject of debate in former legislatures. Consolidation of certain courts, it is argued, would be a saving in money and would eliminate confusion. Some lawyers favor empowering the state supreme court to adopt rules of practice.

Somewhat closely allied with the question of court practice is that of the unification of courts. In some quarters sentiment has developed for the absorption by the circuit courts of some subordinate courts. This, however, is an issue to be settled by the constitutional convention, but it will be considered as a part of the program of reform being sought by the bar of the state.

At attempt probably will be made to obtain a law preventing an individual without a license from acting in legal capacities. On the statute books now there is a prohibition against a man representing himself to be an attorney from practicing law, but there is said to be nothing to prohibit a man who does not pretend to be a licensed attorney from practicing law in a law office and transacting all the business that a licensed attorney can practice so long as he keeps out of court.

Abolition of the grand jury probably will be included in the program of the bar association on the ground that the system is the occasion of long delays, and that too many cases are dismissed because of faulty indictments.

WYATT IS FARMER

Chas. N. Wyatt, who seeks the nomination for commissioner on the Democratic ticket, is a well known farmer residing five miles south of Franklin, where he has been located for 15 years. Prior to that Mr. Wyatt resided on a farm northwest of Alexander, and he has a wide acquaintance in the eastern part of the county. Contrary to an impression which has become current in some parts of the county, Mr. Wyatt has never been a resident of the village of Franklin, all of his life having been spent on the farm.—Adv.

MRS. CHAS. PEDEN GAINS 27 POUNDS

Twice Examined and Each Time Told Operation Was Only Hope.

"I have just finished my third bottle of Tanlac and have gained twenty-seven pounds," was the truly remarkable statement made by Mrs. Chas. Peden, residing at 550 Mill street, Huntsville, Ala. Mrs. Peden is one of the best known and highly respected women of that thriving little city, where she has made her home for a number of years.

When I commenced taking the medicine," she continued, "I only weighed ninety-eight pounds, now I weigh 125 pounds and never felt better in my life. For years I have suffered with a bad form of stomach trouble, constipation and pains in my side and back. At times the pains took the form of torture and I was twice examined and each time I was told that I had appendicitis and that an operation would be my only hope. I had fallen off until I only weighed ninety-eight pounds and was so weak I could hardly get around."

"I had no appetite at all scarcely, and what little I did eat would cause gas to form in my stomach, which gave me palpitation of the heart, sick headaches and a dizzy feeling about the head. When the spells came on I would get awfully nervous. I worried about myself until I could rest and sleep but little."

"I had fallen off until I was skin and bones and my strength and energy were slowly leaving me. I had a dread of the future and could see nothing but the operating table and the knife. I had a perfect horror of an operation, but I had made up my mind that it was either life or death and prepared to submit to it. I had made all preparations for the operation and called on my sister to tell her good-bye, as I did not know whether I would live to see her again or not. My sister begged and pleaded with me not to allow them to cut on me and told me to wait and try a good tonic for a while. The next day, as I returned from the consultation room I thought of what she said and as I had heard so much about Tanlac I decided to try it as a last resort and stopped at Gilbert's Drug Store and bought a bottle. Of course I had lost heart and had no faith in the medicine, but to please my sister I made up my mind to take it and oh, what a happy day that was for me!"

"I never returned for the operation, but just kept taking the Tanlac. Right from the start I began to feel better. The medicine seemed to take hold right at once. It had a soothing effect and in a few days I felt no pain at all. I was so happy over the wonderful improvement in my condition that I sent for my neighbors to tell them how much better I felt. I sent and got another bottle of Tanlac, and have just finished taking my third bottle and feel like I have been made all over again into a new woman."

"As I have said before, I now weigh 125 pounds, and my improvement has been so rapid that none of my clothes are big enough for me. I will have to make them all over again. I now have a ravenous appetite and my husband says I am simply eating him out of house and home. I have even gone back to my coffee which I was told not to touch. Those terrible pains in my back and head have all disappeared and I sleep like a child. I am no longer nervous and when I get up mornings I feel refreshed, cheerful and bright. I am now able to attend to my household duties and I feel as if I had started life all over again. My husband is highly delighted, and my recovery is the talk of the neighborhood. I do nothing but rejoice all day long over the recovery of my health and praise Tanlac to everybody."

"I feel so grateful for my escape from the operating table and the knife that you may publish what I have said; you may, if you will, tell other women suffering as I was, to come and see me and I will be glad to tell them all about my case."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve.—Adv.

INTERESTING LETTERS FROM GERMANY

Mrs. J. Herman has received several letters from her nephew, Harry Siff with headquarters, first army statistical section, A. O., A. P. O. 297, A. E. F., and from them the Journal is permitted to make some extracts. The first letter was from Mayne and he tells how crooked and narrow are the streets. He went out walking and exploring one day and before he knew it he was lost. He knew a church with a tall, leaning steeple, built 225 years ago, and steering by that found his way back all right. Everything was very clean, people washing streets and walks in front of their homes. They were generally friendly to the Americans but disliked the English and French.

The next letter was from Coblenz, a city of 75,000, situated on the Rhine and very beautiful, up to date and attractive. He said it was even livelier than Chicago: people out on the streets and things moving right along. Street cars, department stores, fine show windows, splendid stocks of goods and everything new and attractive. They were located in the city hall, a building of stone and marble and very fine. Their office was a daisy; he could tilt back in his chair and look out on the Rhine covered with all manner of craft. The office room was elegant; marble walls and floors; pictures, fine rugs and window draperies and all elegant and rich. In fact, he said the city hall beat the one in Chicago by a mile. A large fort, the Masonic temple and other structures were dominant. He took especial satisfaction in the souvenirs he had collected. Among them was a belt taken from a German. It was a fine and adorned with the words, "Gott Mit Uns" (God with us). He also had secured two officers' helmets worth $100 each in Chicago or New York. Among other things was a piece of shrapnel that missed him but a few feet when he was at the front. He also had an iron cross bestowed on an officer for brave conduct but now said that brave officer was shoveling coal. He was especially enthusiastic over the wonderful scenery as well he might be for it is indeed grand and romantic. Along the Rhine are the ruins of the castles from which the crusaders went nearly a thousand years ago to rescue the holy sepulcher from the infidels and all about are romantic and historic scenes and lovely natural scenery.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gouveia

Dear Folks:
I suppose the weather up there is simply at the bottom of the thermometer. That's the beauty of this part of the country. I have been running around in my shirt sleeves all day, and when I went down to take a bath, without a shirt.

YOU MAY FIND IT IN STOCKING

Cincinnati authority says your troublesome corns just loosen and fall off

Sore corns, hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes just loosen in their sockets and fall off the next day if you will apply directly upon the corn a few drops of a drug called freezone, says a Cincinnati authority.

You merely put a drop or two of this freezone on the tender, touchy corn today and instantly the corn stops hurting, then tomorrow sometime you may find the old tortuous pest somewhere in your stocking, having fallen off entirely without a particle of soreness, pain or irritation. The skin surrounding and beneath the former corn will be as healthy, pink and smooth as the palm of your hand.

A quarter ounce of freezone is sufficient to rid one's feet of every corn and callus, and any druggist will charge but a few cents for it. It is a compound made from ether.

FROM ROY SANDBERG

Mrs. C. A. Sandberg has received the following from her son Roy:
Point-a-Mousson, France, Dec. 29th, 1918.

Dearest Mother and All:
Well as today is Sunday a day of rest will try and write you a few lines. Well Xmas is over and guess you all had a very merry Xmas and only wish I could have been with you to help eat Xmas dinner at home but here's hoping I can be with you all next Xmas. I can truthfully say that I had a very pleasant Xmas "over here" and enjoyed it very much. Our battery fixed up a large hall just across the street from where our quarters are and believe me the hall certainly was fixed up in great shape it was all decorated with holly and evergreen and in one corner of the hall was a large Xmas tree with all the trimmings that go with a Xmas tree. We also had a good piano player which was very much appreciated. We all assembled up in the hall about 6:30 p. m. Xmas night and as they also had envelopes. With your name printed on them. Every man had to go around and find the envelope with his name on it when everyone had found their envelope and everyone had been seated the waiters which I forgot to mention started to serve supper. I forgot to tell you that with every man's envelope was a bar of chocolate a package of cigarettes a can of smoking tobacco and an apple. This is what we had to eat: roast beef, mashed potatoes and gravy, cocoa, sweet corn, cake, pudding, pie, dates, apples and nuts and believe me I sure did enjoy the feed. After supper every man was given a pound of chocolate candy. We also put on an entertainment after we had finished our feed which I thought was a very good play, the play was composed of a quartet by three other fellows and myself but I thought the quartet was pretty bum as we were hoarse from yelling at a ball game the day before. We had a wrestling match, a blindfolded boxing match, another boxing match by two of the sergeants, clog dancing, slight of hand stunts and several other numbers which I can't think of at present. Our captain gave us a speech which was very much appreciated. Besides our battery we had one of the Y. M. C. A. secretaries and one of the Y. M. C. A. ladies, also two Salvation Army ladies, besides several lieutenants and captains from other companies. I think everyone present had a real good time and enjoyed themselves as I know I did and I think everyone else did. Well mama I received my Xmas package from you yesterday and I must say that I was more than pleased to receive it; the socks and handkerchiefs were just what I needed and I will sure make good use of them; the cigars were also appreciated and they came in fine shape. I am smoking one of them now, and it sure does taste good to smoke a real cigar. Oh, yes I almost forgot to tell you that the Y. M. C. A. and Salvation Army were also good to us Xmas. The Y. M. C. A. gave us a bar of chocolate a package of cigarettes a cigar, smoking tobacco, hot cocoa, and cookies. The Salvation Army gave us pumpkin pie and hot cocoa, also a handkerchief. I think every soldier over here had a very merry Xmas this year, at least I hope so. I am sending you my Xmas card in this letter. Here's hoping you receive it O. K. Please put it away as I would like to save it as a remembrance from our regiment. Did Harvey get to go home for Xmas. I guess he didn't though. You asked me in one of your letters some time ago, if we had the same top sergeant that we had when in Custer. Now we have a new top sergeant now as the other one went to officers training school. The top sergeant which we have now sure is a prince and everyone in the battery sure likes him fine. How is the weather down there, have you had any snow yet. I guess it is almost time for snow over there now. We had a little snow here the other day but it didn't amount to anything as the ground was so wet it melted as fast as it came down, it rains almost every day over here, it has been raining every day for the last two weeks, but we have so much water out in the field where we had our guns parked that we had to go out and pull them up to a higher place and leave them. We also had to put on our hip boots and some places the water was so deep it came almost up to the top of our boots. Well I guess Harvey hasn't found out when he is going to be mustered out yet, has he. I guess he won't have to wait very many more weeks until he can be on his way home. Have you heard from Earnest lately. I owe him a letter and must answer it today without fail. I also owe Harvey a letter. One of the fellows in our room receives the Detroit papers from his folks and I was reading in one of the papers where the French has asked for American soldiers to help build up their towns if that is the case it's hard to tell when the American soldiers will get home. Well as I have wrote about everything I can think of, must bring this to a close. Please excuse all mistakes and writing, here's hoping you are all in the best of health as it leaves me, feeling fine. Tell papa and the boys hello, also Ruth and family. Please answer soon. With lots of love and kisses I am your loving son.

Roy.

HUMMER MANURE SPREADER

And, of all the manure spreaders on the market the Hummer has no equal. Why? The main frame which is the foundation is entirely of high carbon channel steel—no wood to rot out as in nearly every other make. All working parts mounted on this steel frame, which assures you of proper alignment of these parts, which in turn insures light draft. Heavy channel steel cross members are securely bolted to the side sills with steel brackets, under which is a heavy truss rod. Two brace rods extend diagonally across the frame connecting the side sills, thus eliminating any chance of a twisting frame and thereby throw the working parts out of alignment. The front end is rigidly braced and connected to the channel steel sides by a heavy cross member and trussed together with a heavy reinforced corner bracket.

We claim perfection in construction for the Hummer. For convenience of the operator it is low down—easy to load. The arch of the front end allows you to turn short and can be turned easily in its own length. The channel steel sills are bent upward at front end and connected to a heavy steel cross member. Fifth wheel extra large in diameter and equipped with hard oil cup.

The track of both rear and front wheels is such that you can successfully top-dress small growing corn. Top-dressing of any crop has proven most valuable. A light sprinkle of manure on your wheat, and also, your meadow, will pay big interest on the investment.

WITH THE COLORS

then we'll be shunted off somewhere for they can't spare the track space here. We have sixteen coaches in all and take up so much space that just now the train is cut in three sections, and the office is a half kilometre away from the personell car.

The cathedral here—St. Cyr—is the first one which I visited over here. We were at a confirmation in it on the 30th of last May, and the sexton showed us the organ. The Westminster organ is a model of convenience in comparison. Yesterday another fellow and I were on top of the tower from which of course the view is great. One unimaginative Yank tried to tell the sexton what he thought of anyone who would build such a big tower, and not put an elevator in it. The sexton did not understand a word.

The Swiss trips were well worth while. We spent a week at Bellegarde, making several side trips down canons, up the mountains, and once up to Evian-Bains on the shore of Lake Geneva. When we brought our first load of repatriated Americans from Geneva the Swiss were out en masse, and as the train pulled out of the station, they lighted red flares all over the city and set up a din equal to a genuine American celebration. The late American prisoners of war are all on this side of the Rhine now, and we are going to haul wounded and sick from the base hospitals as fast as the sea-ports can accommodate them. Some of our "kill-joys" say that we won't see the States before 1920, but the rest of us consider July 4th a safe bet, and I want especially to be back by the opening of college next September.

Within a few days I am to get a seven days' leave and I had planned to spend it in Paris. We learn today that leaves to that city will not be granted to us, because 25 per cent of each outfit can go on leave now, and if everyone headed for Paris, there would be a half-million of us, and the food and shelter question would be serious. Nice seems to be second choice when a fellow goes on leave, and I imagine it will be almost as congested down there. I haven't decided yet just where to go. I'd go to England if it was possible but that is impossible unless a fellow has a relative there who is seriously sick or dead, and I can't qualify in that respect.

You have probably heard indirectly about my designs on a university course for the rest of this winter and during the spring months. Three of us fellows from this detachment have the consent of our commanding officer to ask the Chief Surgeon for a furlough enabling us to get some university work. The Educational Commission of the Army is co-operating with the Y. M. C. A. Educational Bureau and with the American University Union, to make this plan possible for us fellows whose enlistment broke into our college work. It seems that all qualifications are to be investigated by these organizations and that they will recommend to the Chief Surgeon the fellows who are best entitled to such furloughs. We three could not all get away, but the other two are in Paris today on some company business, and they are incidentally looking up the particulars in company with an influential Y. M. C. A. man who was with our train while we were hauling Americans out of Switzerland. We think that the Paris offices of these organizations will prove the logical place to get something definite.

No, don't expect me to be a French scholar when I get back. We are exposed to too many dialects over here to learn much about any of them. I've noticed when I talk French, the reply is usually "Comprends pas"—or something that sounds like that—and I'd hardly call that success on my part. Oh, there are several expressions which everyone learns over here, and I suppose I know them as well as the next fellow. For instance, one always asks about the price over here before the article is wrapped up, but as for carrying on a smooth conversation we still feel infinitely more at home when using Mississippi Valley English.

Sincerely,
FRED W. BRAY.

Fred Lakamp Writes

Dec. 22, 1918

Dear Mother:
Just a few lines to let you know that I am feeling fine and hope you are all the same. I received the letter today, and the package yesterday. We sure enjoyed it. It was in fine shape except two or three cigars were smashed a little. Several of the boys get packages about like it, and we share them together. I received a letter from Henry. I sent them one of the cards and he wrote right away. He said they were all well and had a big time when the armistice was signed. I wrote you one letter when we got here but don't know whether you got it or not.

We sailed the 4th day of November and got here the 18th. We had a nice trip. The first two or three days were a little rough, but the rest was fine. I never got a bit sick, and never missed a meal. Only twenty of our unit came with me and the last of the unit got here yesterday, so now we are all together. There were 805 horses and mules on the ship and we only lost one mule.

We are building a big remount and hospital and have it about finished. There are horses coming in every day to doctor up. We were half way across the pond when the armistice was signed and got the news by wireless. I guess a lot of the boys in the States are getting discharged. I don't know when I will get mine, but I don't think it will be before spring, as we have a good bit of work here.

We have a pretty good time here at nights as we can get a pass till nine-thirty. The days are pretty short and our work is done at four-thirty. We have plenty of clothing, two pairs of shoes, a pair of rubber boots, four pairs of socks, three suits of underwear, two suits and a suit of overalls and an overcoat and the like.

Well, I guess I will close for this time. Tell Lynches hello and I enjoyed what they sent very much.
Good bye. Love to all.
Fritz.

Chaplain McGourty Writes Mrs. Flynn of Son's Death

Private Co. M, 127th Inf.,
A. E. F. France
Base Hospital No. 114,
A. P. O. 705,
Beau Desert, France.

My Dear Mrs. Flynn:
It is my sad duty to announce to you the death of your son. After a few days sickness strengthened with the Sacraments he was called by God to his reward.

He was reconciled and brave to the end. I ask you in God's name to be strong and brave also.

You have been called to make a great sacrifice and try to think of that other great sacrifice of Jesus and His Blessed Mother. Go to them for comfort, appeal to them for strength.

Kneel at the foot of the cross with Mary and from the lips of Christ Crucified as from the grave which covers the remains of your dear one listen to the words of love. "Greater love than this no man hath that he lay down his life for a friend."

That these words of Christ may bring you some hours of comfort is the prayerful wish of the Chaplain.

Very respectfully yours,
Gerald S. McGourty.

OWEN E. FRANKS WRITES TO FATHER.

Owen E. Franks recently wrote to his father A. F. Franke as follows.
December 11, 1918.

Dear Dad:
Now for a little news, you have wanted for some time. When we came over here we were sent to a training camp near Vannes and here we were taught some of the tricks of war and what to expect and in a way what to do when these tricks were to be used. After staying there about a month we were sent up front and took our position on the Toul front in the St. Mihiel sector.

When the time came we made the St. Mihiel drive, gained our objective and a little more and were then sent to the Verdun front where we made the drive on Grande Pre. We were successful in taking Grande Pre and then continued our drive thru the Argonne forests. We got the Germans out of this forest and had them on the run out in the open when they gave up and signed the armistice.

Now this is only the large drives as a whole I have told you of which covered months and you must wait until I return for the details. I have been very lucky so far and have received no bad bumps aside from one. This war game is sure a great one and I have seen enough of it to get my fill. After the Huns signed the armistice we were relieved, as we never had a relief from the time we came into the line at St.

Mihiel, so they relieved us and sent us back to the forts of Verdun to rest. While here an order came thru headquarters that 14 men from each company were to be given passes to have a real rest and a good time. Well you can imagine the fellows all wanting to go and they all wished they could be chosen for the lucky ones. Well to cut a long story short, I was the lucky sergeant chosen by our commander to take the boys from our outfit. We had a special train from Verdun and after traveling four days we arrived at Mont Dore, a noted summer and winter resort. It is situated in the mountains and we have the use of the noted bath house here where Howard Loft came here in France. The water comes out of the mountain warm, and sure is wonderful to bathe in. Yes and while I think of it, please keep my letters to you, out of the papers. I don't want any notoriety. All I want is a god feed when I get back and you had better have about forty squabs for me when I get back as I am tired of bully beef and hard tack.

Here on our trip they feed us fine but Oh my when we go back to our outfit and get into those army rations it sure will go hard. We don't know if we will be sent to Germany as part of the army of occupation or not but the rumor is that the outfits that have been in the most of the war and know the game will be kept here. I suppose the country went wild when they found out that the old flag came out on top again. There is no doubt about the fact that our boys sure had the Huns' goat from the start. Why they thought the Yanks were crazy when they came after them as there was no such thing as keeping under cover. They went right over and gained their objective or never came back that was all there was to it. Give love to all.

Your son,
Sergt. O. E. Franks,

LETTER FROM FRANCE.

G. B. Andre has received the following letter from Floyd Smith: Brabant, France, Dec. 13, 1918.
Mr. G. B. Andre,
Dear Friend: It has been a long time since I have written to you and I feel very much ashamed of myself for it. Ever since we landed on this side we have been pretty busy up until the signing of the armistice. We aren't doing much of anything at present just waiting around for orders.

There is considerable speculation in the Co., as to the time we will get back home but no one

I learned of the influenza in the states, it must have been pretty bad before they got it under control. It was certainly too bad about Pitner Carter for he was a nice young fellow. I guess there are quite a number of the boys from our class in the service. Do you know the address of any of them? I would like very much to hear from them. I hear from Carl Tendick quite often. Is certain. We may go to Germany from here and if we do it will be quite a while before we see the states again. If we go home from here I expect to be back by spring.
